Fraud Warning and Signature

The undersigned is an authorized representative of the applicant and represents that reasonable enquiry has been made to obtain the answers to questions on this application. The Applicant warrants that the above statements and particulars, together with any attached or appended documents or materials (this Application), are true and complete and do not misrepresent, misstate or omit any material facts. Furthermore, the Applicant authorizes the Company to make any investigation and inquiry in connection with the Application as it may deem necessary.

The Applicant agrees to notify the Company of any material changes in the answers to the questions on this Application which may arise prior to the effective date of any policy issued pursuant to this Application and the Applicant understands that any outstanding quotations may be modified or withdrawn based upon such changes at the sole discretion of the Company. Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or another person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects the person to criminal and [NY: substantial] civil penalties. (Not applicable in CO, DC, FL, HI, MA, NE, OH, OK, OR, VT or WA. Insurance benefits may also be denied in LA, ME, TN, and VA).

In the District of Columbia, Warning: It is a crime to provide false or misleading information to an insurer for the purpose of defrauding the insurer or any other person. Penalties include imprisonment and/or fines.

In Florida, any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

In Massachusetts, Nebraska, Oregon and Vermont, any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or another person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, may be committing a fraudulent insurance act, which may be a crime and may subject the person to criminal and civil penalties.

In Washington, it is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines, and denial of insurance benefits. Completion of this application does not bind coverage or commit the company to policy issuance.
